THE BERKY FAMILY

BRANCHES OF JACOB BURCKY (BERKY)

AND

ELIZABETH BLAUGH

Allen County Public Library
Ft. Wayne, Indiana

JACOB BÜRCKY m. Elizabeth Blaugh. The earliest ancestor of a line of Berkeys coming from the northern part of Somerset county, particularly Conemaugh and Paint townships. See record of will made in 1805, page , in which all children are named. He is supposed to have emigrated from Switzerland or Germany about 1775. In the history of the Blaugh Family there is a record of his residence first in one of the eastern counties. Christian Balugh, the ancestor of the Blaughes, was born in Switzerland about 1700. He was married and his wife died leaving him two sons and two daughters: Jacob, Veronica, Elizabeth and Christian. He came to America in 1750 on the ship "Brotherhood" which landed at Philadelphia Nov. 3. He was married again in America and had seven more children. In his will (on record in Dauphin co, Pa.) he mentions all of his 11 children and specifies that Elizabeth who married Jacob Berkey, was to receive 15 pounds less than the others for the reason that she left home before coming of age. This Jacob Berkey is said to have moved to Somerset county. Elizabeth Blaugh's father died Nov. 12, 1786. It seems that Elizabeth, Veronica, Jacob and Christian were all under 15 years of age when Christian Blaugh landed in 1750, for only the names of persons above 15 were recorded in the immigrant passenger lists, and the children's names do not appear. Elizabeth was born about 1740. The fact that Peter Berkey, who received the homestead according to the terms of the will, was born in 1782 and was the youngest son and the eighth of eleven children of Jacob and Elizabeth Berkey, would make it appear that the supposed date of emigration (1775) is not correct and that Jacob Berkey belonged to a family already residing in one of the eastern counties (possibly Berks) or that he emigrated earlier than 1775.

(There is a suggestion as to the origin of Jacob Berkey in the descendants of another Jacob Berkey who arrived in the ship "Hope" at Philadelphia, August 28, 1733 and settled in Bern township, Berks county. In 1759, he was a taxable of that township, paying a tax of nine pounds. He was the original owner of the Berkey Homestead on which he died in January 1764. His son, Jacob Berkey, who came into possession of the Berkey Homestead, died in 1819 leaving five sons (and also a daughter, if the will of Jacob Borky made in 1818 and on record in Berks county is the will of this Jacob Berkey). The sons of the Jacob Berkey who died in 1819 are John, Heinrich, Wilhelm, Jacob, and Daniel. In the family history contained in the History of Berks County, Pa., Vol. II., p. 1080, it is stated that Jacob went west. In the will of Jacob Borky the children mentioned are; Henry, John, Elizabeth, Daniel, Wilhelm, David and Jacob. The will also contains this instruction: that Jacob is to have but one pound, should he not appear within two years after the decedent's death. While it is impossible to identify the Jacob Berkey who went west with the Jacob Berkey who married Elizabeth Blaugh, the existence of a large family of Berkeys in Berks county at a much earlier date than 1775, ~~leading to~~ with names of children so very much like the names which persist in the descendants of Jacob and Elizabeth Berkey suggests that Jacob Berkey may not have been an immigrant.)

The exact location of the farm willed by Jacob Berkey to his son Peter Berkey in 1805 is difficult to determine. What was known as the old Peter Berkey farm was located in Conemaugh township, along the Shade Creek, below the Berkey Church, and near the Benjamin Miller place. It was later owned by Peter Ott and is now property of the Berwind White Coal Company. Peter Ott came into possession of the place in 1848 and lived on it from 1856 to 1889. He purchased it from a man named Postelwait who bought it at sheriff's sale (date unknown). Tradition has it that Peter Berkey was not a successful farmer and "could not make the farm go" as he himself is said to have remarked. He also operated a grist-mill. The list of taxables in Conemaugh township for 1823 shows him to be the owner of a gristmill. His daughter Rachel was drowned in the dam belonging to the mill. Mrs. Peter Ott whose husband came into possession of the Peter Berkey farm in 1848, says that there was no grist mill on the place when her husband bought the farm, and that the drowning of Rachel Berkey occurred farther down the creek. She is of the opinion that the Berkey place which had a grist-mill was nearer the Stonycreek and that Peter Berkey came from this place to what is known later as the Peter Berkey farm. It is not likely, therefore, that the farm willed to Peter Berkey in 1805 was the one sold at sheriff's sale sometime before 1848.

The assessment records for Conemaugh township give the following:

1802	Jacob Buirkey	111	acres	40	acres	clear
1805	Jacob Berkey	329	"	40	"	"
1806	Jacob Berkey	200	"	15	"	"
	Peter Berkey	107	"	40	"	#
1807	Peter Berkey	107	"	40	"	"
1808	Peter Berckey	111	"	50	#	"

Christian Miller, mentioned as one of the executors in the will of Jacob Berkey, was the owner of the farm adjoining the Peter Berkey farm. It was later known as the Benjamin Miller farm and is now in possession of Weaver heirs. Christian Miller was the grandfather of Mrs. Peter Ott

(Add to Jacob Berkey m. Elizabeth Blough)

In Memoirs of Elkhart and St. Joseph Counties, Ind., published by Goodspeed Brothers, Chicago, 1893, under a biographical sketch of David Berkey, a great grandson of Jacob Berkey, contains the following :

"The remote ancestor of this family came from Switzerland to America at a very early date and settled in Berks county, Pa, where they were engaged in tilling the soil. The paternal grandfather of our subject left Berkey county and settled in Somerset county where he reared his family of seven children; John, Peter, Tobias, David, Fannie, Annie and Jacob. He was one of the early settlers there and owned a good farm. His son John Berkey was born on the old homestead."

The paternal grandfather of David Berkey was Jacob Berkey who married _____ Miller and resided in Somerset county near the Berkey church. This was the oldest son of Jacob Berkey (1). It would thus appear that Jacob and Elizabeth Berkey lived in Berks county before their residence in Somerset county, since their oldest son is here said to have come from Berks county to Somerset county. The sketch also states that the son died on the old Berkey homestead which according to best information was near the Berkey church.

3 John Berkey m. Annie Berkeybile; Elizabeth Ebbert. res about four miles south of Johnstown, Pa. on a farm of about 700 acres. He had six children by his first wife who died about 1829 and two by his second wife who is buried in Cemetery west of Goshen, Ind. After the death of his first wife he went to reside in Johnstown and invested in a bridge crossing the Stonycreek river into Johnstown, where he kept toll-house for many years. This bridge was finished Nov. 12, 1842. John Berkey was appointed bridge-keeper at $6.00 a month. Politically, he was an old line Whig. He died in 1847 and was buried first ~~and was~~ first in the cemetery near the present High School building. Later his body was removed to Grandview cemetery to the Cobaugh lot

4 Jacob Berkey m. Sara Lint. Nine children. He was born in 1815 and sometime in the 50's moved from Penna. to Indiana, locating on a farm 5 or 6 miles from Goshen. His younger brother David accompanied him. Jacob was a Dunkard preacher, and accompanied by a number of people including Peter Berkey, son of David, he moved farther west to Kansas to start a Dunkard community. He met death by drowning in crossing a river on his return from visiting a sick woman. He was large and powerful man and a black-smith by trade. His home at Goshen was broken up when he went west on his venture which was not a success. One informant says his death occurred in Texas in 1882.

2 Joseph Berkey m. _____ Taylor. Born in Somerset county. (See sketch of Jacob Berkey (1) p. _____.) He was a great hunter in his day. Mrs. Emory West, Johnstown, Pa., has in her possession a spur, belt-buckle and powder-horn which belonged to Joseph Berkey. The story is told of his going to the top of his house and sounding an alarm with a trumpet when ~~xxxxx~~ he was surrounded by Indians. He was a Menonnite but joined the church when an old man. He died at the home of his son Henry Berkey with whom he had lived for a number of years. His death occurred in the summer of 1857. He is buried in the private cemetery on the Noah Berkey farm about four miles from Scalp Level. The grave is unmarked as are some others in the same burying ground, and it is very likely that one of these is the grave of his wife. William Berkey (4) and wife, Jacob Berkey (3) and wife, Henry Berkey (4) and wife, Mrs. John Speicher (4), Mrs. George Berkey - all relatives, attended the funeral. Joseph Berkey and his brother Samuel (p. _____) are said to have married sisters who, though not twins, are said to have resembled one another very much. Both had light hair and blue eyes, and neither could speak German. The few facts concerning Joseph Berkey were given by Mrs. William Berkey, Mrs. Barbara Stauff, Elkhart, Ind., whose home farm joined the Henry Berkey farm and who was a grand-daughter of Samuel Berkey, brother of Joseph Berkey, and also Mrs. Mary Livingstone, a great-grand-daughter of Samuel Berkey who recalled visits of Joseph Berkey ~~in~~ in her home and who lived in 1915 near the old burial ground. Four children.

- 3 Jacob Berkey (1792-1872) m. Elizabeth Saddoris. He was born in Conemaugh township and died at the home of his daughter Mary, on the farm known as the home farm, that is, the one occupied by Jacob after he removed from Conemaugh township. It is now as the Fleegle Farm and is situated about one mile north of Stoyestown. Through his marriage with Elizabeth Saddoris he came into possession of a large amount of land comprising a number of farms, but the possession was to continue only until their children arrived at the age of 21. This was because Elizabeth's marriage was against the wish of her father. According to the terms of the will of William Saddoris, when the children of Jacob Berkey arrived at the age of 21, Susannah received the Benjamin Bowman farm which was the Saddoris homestead; William, the tract known as the "Vineyard"; Daniel, the sixty acres between the Fleegle farm and the William Berkey farm; and Mary, the home farm. Three children were not remembered in the will; Jacob, Louisa and Jonathan. Saddoris later conducted a tavern at Stoyestown. He was visiting his daughter Elizabeth when he took ill and was taken home by William Berkey. Death was caused by dropsy. Nine children.

- 4 William Berkey, b. Aug. 4, 1823, in Conemaugh township; m. Caroline Maurer in 1846 and a few weeks later settled upon the Henry Berkey farm, adjoining the old homestead, near Stoyestown. He remained there for three years when he removed to the "Vineyard" and in later years retired to live in Stoyestown. He served in the Civil War and died _____

2 Samuel Berkey (Bürcky, Berckey) m. Mary Taylor. See will of Jacob Bürcky (1), p. _____, in which the father's name is spelled Bürcky and sons' name, Berckey. Samuel and his brother Joseph married sisters. He was the sixth child and the third son. He lived near Stantons Mills, Somerset county, Pa., on the farm joining the old Forney farm. He was in his 60's when he died and was buried near or on the old farm, possibly on the Short farm. A biographical found in a county history contains this statement: Samuel Berkey was born in 1780 in Bedford county. He was the son of a German who was the founder of the Berkey family in this country. He settled in Jenner township; was a farmer and conducted a distillery. The assessment records of Somerset county contain the name of Samuel Berkey, son of Jacob, in the list of taxables of Quemahoning township in 1801 and thereafter for a number of years. From 1802 the word "shipper" appears after his name, and in 1808 the word "distillery. In 1817 he was a taxable in Jenner township. He had eleven children.

He stood nine drafts during the Civil War and in 1863 when Lincoln and Johnson's presidential train passed through Johnstown and the station platform gave way under the crowd assembled, he sustained an injury to his foot and died the following year. He was buried in the Berkey Church cemetery. In 1893 his was still living near Elkhart, Ind., at the age of 87 years. He had ten children.

Mr W. A. Berkey

Westfield & Fallsburg Pa

Dear friend

we feel sorry that you
you could not be with us at our reunion however we hope to have you here some time later and also finding the place where you wish to find or the farm that was pulled to Peter Berkey now this I found out from my sister Mrs Josiah Fry who kept Elizabeth Berkey Lehman (and died there) She said she was born on a farm along the Stary Creek where they had a grist mill and that they rowed boats across and that a sister I rowed there

now this tract of land you will find around King station south of Johnston and owned by Ted King about 50 or 60 years ago as Mr Faust can remember or if it was a large tract of land may have been a tract and owned by

Emanuel James and later by David Alt and further as son A G Faust may have some record that may give you a guide to the place this is along the turnpike street car line King, or Kelso

Yours very respectfully

Mr and Mrs J E Faust

is hope your father might be better

GENEALOGY COLLECTION
F. H. C. COMPANY
FORT WORTH, TEXAS, U.S.A.

Saylor, married _____ Berkey and moved to Canada in 1808 where there are now over 500 descendants of hers. It is said that Veronica was forced to cook for the British soldiers during the War of 1812 on account of her sympathy for the States. Two lines of Berkeys are related to the Blaugh family at the earliest point in our record of them. Jacob Berkey (Line I) m. Elizabeth Blaugh, daughter of Christian Blaugh, the first immigrant of the Blaugh family. In this line of Berkeys, Jacob and Nellie married Veronica and John Blaugh, brother and sister, and grand-children of Christian Blaugh. Anne Berkey married Christian Blaugh, another grand-child of the earliest Blaugh ancestor. According to the Blaugh records Jacob who married Veronica Blaugh was born in 1768 and died April 1, 1844. But there is also another line of Berkeys scattered in Indiana, Somerset, Cambria and Allegheny counties whose early representatives emigrated to Canada. Until the discovery of the list of descendants just given in the history of the Blaugh family, it seemed a fair conclusion that the following line is descended from the Jacob Berkey who married Veronica Blaugh and removed to Canada. The list of Berkeys in the Blaugh genealogy reveals almost a total absence of families that are usually associated with a list of Berkey descendants even where they removed from a Pennsylvania source. The following line contains names familiar in Berkey relationships but with early Canadian connections: Assuming that the earliest known Berkeys in this line belonged to a fourth generation we have:

LINE III.

The origin of this line of Berkey descendants is traced to an immigrant by the name of Jacob Buerki, ^{age 35, (b. 1698)} who landed in Philadelphia on the ship "Hope" from Cowes, England, August 28, 1733.

With him came Peter Saylor and Abraham Miller (Mueller). Jacob Buerki settled in the eastern part of Pennsylvania, one informant says in Lancaster county. ~~But~~ In the Archives of the Pennsylvania Historical Society there appears this abstract of will taken from the Berks country records: ^(Berks co. was formed from Phila. Lancaster and Chester counties in 1752)

1763. Will of Jacob Buerckey, Berne Twp.

To two sons, Christian and Hans, all my land, cattle, tools, horses, wagons, etc. They paying to each of my three daughters Maria, Catherine, and Anna 70 pounds and provide for their mother during life.

Coming together as immigrants, the Saylor and Berkeys continued in close relation. Christian Berkey married Catherine Saylor - daughter of Jacob Saylor. ^{brother of Catherine.} lor^A. Catherine Berkey married John Saylor, ^{Christian's grand -} daughter married Christian Saylor, a grandson of Catherine and John Saylor. (See lists following). Jacob Buerki's sons, Christian and John emigrated to the western part of Pennsylvania and settled in Somerset county. Most of the descendants of Christian located in Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois.

2. Christian m. Catherine Saylor. He is believed to have ^{then Brothersvalley twp., Bedford co.,} lived near Garret, Somerset county, on a tract of land comprising 200 acres and sold by him ^{in 1789} to a _____ Miller whose son later occupied a part of the tract. It was known as the Mt. Hope tract. Christian and his brother John came to Somerset county about 1765. Christian afterwards moved to Ft. Cumberland and died there. Tradition asserts that Christian was only 3 months old when brought to America by his parents.

N. W. Chandler asserts that the Grand Rapids Berkeys (included in this line) are descended from Jacob Buerki through his son Christian and grandson John. Mrs. Mary Berkey Capen gives the information that her great-grandfather John Berkey (spelled Barkey) had one brother - name unknown; That their parents died when they were young and they were reared by some other family; that it was their father's family who left Germany in 1615, being driven out by the Catholics; that the Berkeys were Protestant Dunkards and moved to Union co., Somerset, Pa., and later to Perry co., Somerset, O. that her great grandfather was a blacksmith and a farmer; that these facts were given her by her father and are as authentic as a family history can be retained by memory and handed down. In the face of these facts (some of them plainly in error) we are listing John Berkey (Barkey) as one of the children of Daniel Berkey. It is said that he was unable to speak English. He is buried 2 miles east of Somerset, Ohio.

Our information concerning the family of this the second son of Jacob Buerki is found in the Orphans Court Records of Somerset co, pennsylvania. In Vol. 1, page 42, under date of Sept. 7, 1801, and co-heir it is recorded that Jacob Berkey, administrator of John Berkey, deceased, petitioned the Court that ~~in so much as~~ his father had purchased a tract of land of 177 1/2 acres located in Somerset township and that since his father's death he had paid off the the contract for the land, making it a part of the estate to be divided among the heirs. He also asked the Court to make an appraisment of the estate if division of it is not possible. Division was attempted and failed. The Sheriff reported an appraisment was made at $4.20 an acre - total of $745.00.

On the same day came into Court Jacob Berkey, the eldest son of Joh Berkey, decased, and asked to be permitted to take said land at said valuation, he paying the widow and the younger children their respective shares. The Court ordered that said Jacob Berkey do pay unto Johnn Berkey, the heirs of Christian Berkey, deceased, Adam Berkey, Samuel Berkey, Daniel, Berkey, Fannie intermarried with Joseph Most, Magdalent intermarried with Jacob Stutzman, Susannah intermarried with David Stutzman, Sarah intermarried with Samuel Stutzman and Mary Berkey, or to the guardians of such of them as are minors, each the sum of $45.18 withing one year from Aug. 29, 1801. Also ordered that the sum of $248.50 be and remain charged upon the said land and that Jacob Berkey do regularly and annually pay unto Susannah, widow of said deceased, during her natural life, the sum of $14.91 on Aug. 9, 1802 and yearly thereafter. And after the death of said Susannah, the said Jacob Berkey do pay the further sum of $22.59 to each of the said --(list of heirs given above).

— BURKY: An emigrant by the name of Burky came to America from Hesse-Cassel and located at Bally in the Goshen-hoppen valley in Pennsylvania, where he helped to build the Roman Catholic Church of th Most Blessed Sacrament in 1743. He was a member of that church and his remains are buried in the consecrated ground there. He was a relative of that Jacob Burkeyywho emigrated in 1733 and located in Berne twp , Berks county. Tradition says they were brothers. The name is also spelled Burcky and Borcky. Children of the Bally emigrant visited the family of the same name in Berne twp. (Information of this line from Historical and Biographical Annals of Berks Co, Penna by Morton L. Montgomery. Published by J. H. Beers & Co., 1909. Vol II, page 1080.) The children of the emigrant ancestor wwre, like their parents, Roman Catholics, but some of their children located in communities where there was no Catholic church and married into protestant families, some of them becoming protestants.

1. HENRI BÜRG, b. 1720(?), d. 1761. Descendants spell name Pirkey. He was among the early settlers of the Shenandoah Valley, Va. In Staunton, Augusta co., Va., there is an old record plat book and a plat and notation of survey made for him by the county surveyor and dated Aug. 8, 1743. There are deeds recorded for half a dozen other tracts and his will dated Nov. 2, 1761. In the land office at Richmond are records of two tracts patented to him; and others to his children, for lands entered and devised by his will, within ten years of his death. There is a tradition that three brothers came to this country from Hesse Cassel. Descendants of Henry Bürg have no relation to Bergeys, Perkeys and Berkeys given in "The Progenitors of the Bergey Family in America" by David Hendricks Bergey, published in 1907. Jacob H. Pirkey (below) Indianapolis, Ind., great-great-grandson of Henry Bürg has made extensive investigation of descendants of Henry Bürg, the results of which are here stated.

2. Jacob Pirkey r. McGaheysville, Rockingham Co., Va. His signature is found in an agreement dated 1769 between the Lutheran and German Reformed congregations of the Peaked Mt. Church, to pay for the church and its maintenance. The spelling of his name in this signature is Bercke. This agreement and the record of the christenings for many years are in existence. His brother John had his daughter Catherine christened May 4, 1784. The spelling in this record is Barki.

1. Christopher Berky m. Magdelein Miller in Prussia

Migrated from Canton of Berne, Switzerland, early in the 17 hundreds and resided in Virginia for a time and is said to have built a mill for George Washington. Later he settled in Fayette county, Pa., moving then to Columbiana county, Ohio, where he died at the home of his son Daniel Perky, the name having been changed in the meantime, His grandson John F says that the change was due to a school teacher. Five children are known. Magdelein Miller was born in 1747. Mrs. Lenore Perky Webster of Washington, D. C., a great grand-daughter, has traced descendants.

spelling of the name. The changed spelling was adopted by all his descendants. This information was given by a grand daughter. That this ancestor of the Perkeys, most of whom are living in Westmoreland county and Somerset county, is the same David Perky (Berky) who was one of the children of Christopher Berky, is only a conjecture, but the conclusion seems warranted.

THE BERKEY HOMESTEAD ORIGINALLY CALLED THE VINEYARD

The Berkey homestead is a tract which was originally designated as the Vineyard in the deeds and transfers dating back as far as 1780. The order for the application of survey found in the purchase application book in the surveyor-general's office in the state of Pennsylvania, was entered April 7, 1769, and the land was surveyed in September, 1776, for Thomas Mitchell. The original tract included two hundred and eighty-four acres, ninety-two perches.

On March 20, 1780, Thomas Mitchell conveyed the land by deed to John Vander at Philadelphia, who, unable to pay his indebtedness, conveyed the property, March 7, 1782 to John Hazelwood, Edmund Milne, Samuel Garrigue, and Josiah Jones, as assignees. The next transfer was made June 23, 1805, to Edmund Milne, merchant of Philadelphia, for the sum of "one dollar in silver money of the State of Pennsylvania, and for other good and valuable considerations." One of these valuable considerations being a log-chain.

A deed dated August 1, 1805, shows that the "Vineyard" was sold at public sale to John Clarkson, of Philadelphia, and on the following day was repurchased by Edmund Milne. The farm at this period, was described as in Quemahoning Township, Bedford County.

Ten years later, March 16, 1815, Edmund Milne conveyed the tract to General Alexander Ogile, of Somerset County, who, on April 26, 1822, sold it to Frederick Smith, Joseph Smith, and Frederick Smith, Junior. The joint owners, being unable to meet their obligations, the farm was sold, June 8 1827, by George Meese, High Sheriff of Somerset County, to Charles Ogile, an attorney, and son of General Ogile, the previous owner.

Jacob Lehr, of Quemahoning Township, purchased the farm from Charles Ogile March 31, 1829, and on April 2, 1832, sold it to William Saderis and Jacob Berkey. The latter mentioned above, grandfather of Jeremiah Berkey, Jacob Berkey purchased his partners interest and in his last will and testament, made August 31, 1837, gave the farm to his son, William Berkey. The next transfer was made April 2, 1880, when William Berkey sold the farm to his son, Jeremiah Berkey.

Jeremiah Berkey remained in possession of the property until February 18, 1914 when it was deeded to James Corbett.

Valentine Berkey

Among those who have engaged in other occupations outside the agricultural life is Mr. Berkey, who, no doubt, inherits his thrift, energy and perseverance from his German ancestors. In tracing the genealogy of this family, we find that the immediate progenitor of the family came from Germany and settled in Pennsylvania at a very early date. The grandfather of our subject, Peter Berkey, was born in Somerset county, Penn., and was a miller, a manufacturer and a lumber merchant. He married a Miss Fyock and nine children were born to them: Daniel, Peter, Joseph, Christian, Elizabeth, Polly, Rachel, Catherine, and Sally. Mr. Berkey passed all of his days in his native county and died there when eighty years of age. He was a Seven Day Baptist in his religious belief, and a man of good character. He was held high in the estimation of all, was justice of the peace for many years, and his opinion and views were sought on nearly all subjects. In politics he was at one time an old line Whig, but he subsequently espoused the principles of the Republican party. His son, Daniel Berkey, father of the subject, was also a native of Somerset county, Penn., born in the year 1808, and received the common school education of his day. He cleared up a farm in his native county, and was there married to Miss Frances, daughter of Jacob Huffman. Five living children were born to this marriage: David, Andrew, Valentine, Peter D. and Mary, all born in Somerset county. Owing to his good management and industry, Mr. Berkey, accumulated a handsome property and became the owner of about 1000 acres of land. He was an extensive farmer and made his home in his native county until past middle age. Then, as some of his children, Valentine, Peter D., Andrew and Mary, had settled in Elkhart county, Ind., he sold his land in Pennsylvania and between 1865 and 1870 located in Harrison township, this county. He still resides in this county and is eighty-one years of age. His long life has been spent in usefulness, and although the winters of time have touched him with their frost, he still enjoys comparatively good health. A member of the German Baptist Church, he takes an active interest in all good work, and has contributed liberally to his church. In politics he supports the Republican party and advocates its principles and policy. His character is above reproach, he has ever been industrious and energetic, and no man in the county is more highly esteemed. Like his father and grandfather, our subject Valentine Berkey, was born in Somerset county, Penn., and his natal day is May 23, 1833. In the common schools of his day he received a fair education and he was early trained to the duties of farm life. In November 1854, when in his twenty-second year, he came to Elkhart county, Ind. and made a settlement in Goshen. For some time he worked by the day clearing land, and the 23rd of April, 1857, he was married to Miss Hettie Miller, daughter of Jonas and Barbara (May) Miller. In 1857 Mr. Berkey settled on eighty acres of land in Harrison township, cleared it of the heavy timber covering it, and as the years passed by, added to the original tract until he became the owner of 160 acres. This was a fine farm and he remained on it until 1880, when he bought his present farm of acres. Upon this he has erected a tasty, rural residence and his outbuildings and other improvements are of the first class order. Besides his farming industry, Mr. Berkey is engaged in the lumber business with his brother Peter, and is doing an extensive business, buying all his lumber in this county. He is now in prosperous circumstances and is one of the substantial men of the county. Besides the Goshen property, Mr. Berkey owns town property in Medicine Lodge, Kan., also town property in Crisfield and Hazelton, Kan. His marriage resulted in the birth of seven children, as follows: Monroe J., Austin D., Ida A., Ira L., Ella M., Nettie A., and Flyd V. A Republican in his political views, Mr. Berkey held the office of trustee of Harrison township for eight years, discharging the duties incumbent on this office in a very satisfactory manner. He is public spirited and takes an active interest in having good roads and schools. He was a member of the school board for eight years and a road supervisor for several terms. His children have all been well educated. Ella M. graduated at the graded school of Goshen, Monroe J. attended the commercial school at Pierson, Ohio, and is now bookkeeper of the hardware store of Ort, Berkey and Co., of Goshen; Ida A. married O. S. Compton, who is engaged in the implement business in Goshen, and they have two children; Austin D. married Miss Lorna Cripe, and is engaged in farming on the home place; they have two children; Monroe J. married Miss Matilda Baer, and is bookkeeper in Goshen. The remainder of the children are at home.

Peter D. Berkey

Among the substantial and reliable farmers of Elkhart county Ind., may be mentioned Peter D. Berkey, who has done a great deal to bring the county to its present admirable state of cultivation for he was reared to the calling of a farmer, and this occupation has received his attention to a greater or less extent up to the present time. He was born in Somerset county, July 22, 1844, his parents being Daniel P. and Fanny (Huffman) Berkey, both of whom were also natives of Somerset county, where they were reared, educated, and resided until 1866, when they took up their residence in Elkhart county, Ind., settling in Harrison township, where they resided many years, becoming well known and highly respected for their honorable walk through life and their correct mode of living. The mother is deceased, but the father is a resident of Concord township..... For years he has been retired from the active duties of life and is enjoying a serene old age and a competency amply sufficient for his wants and which has been obtained by honest and unceasing efforts in earlier years. The Republican party has always received his hearty support and he has long been a worthy member of the Dunkard Church. Peter D. Berkey was united in marriage to Miss Catherine Berkey, in 1867, she being a native of Somerset county, Penn., and to their union six children have been born: Idella, Warren, Julia, Morris, Foster and Allie. He is not only hospitable himself, but his wife also possesses that worthy attribute and his home is a favorite resort of the elite of his neighborhood.

Daniel W. Berkey

is a son of Andrew Berkey who is one of the leading oldtime farmers of Elkhart county; for the past forty years he has tilled the soil in Harrison township. He owes his nativity to Somerset county, Penn., where he was born May 10, 1831, the second child born to Daniel and Fannie (Huffman) Berkey, and on the old home farm which his parents owned in Somerset county, he received his rearing and a practical knowledge of the work, at which he afterward became so successful. He not only inherited sterling qualities from his parents, but was reared to habits of industry and economy, which made his influence felt in the different localities in which his lot was cast in later years. He gained an education, of the old fashioned kind, in the district school near his boyhood's home and remained with his parents until he was legally responsible for his own conduct, at which time he started to do for himself, and the first year worked for his father on the farm, and in the winter chopped wood and worked for various parties. In 1853 he was married to Miss Rachel Wertz, a daughter of John and Susan (Berkey) Wertz. Soon after his marriage Mr. Berkey emigrated to Indiana and settled in Harrison township on the farm now owned by John Musser, located in Section 10, but prior to locating here had resided from April to November, 1855, in Fulton county, Ohio. He first purchased 120 acres of land and started to improve it, making earnest endeavors to clear it from the heavy timber which covered it. After a great deal of labor, he succeeded in accomplishing this, and in addition to his first purchase bought forty acres more of timber land. He is now residing in a fine brick farm house, has a large bank barn, other substantial farm buildings, good fences, in fact, everything about his place shows the thrifty and practical farmer. Mr. Berkey lived on this farm from the spring of 1856 to 1884, then purchased a small farm of thirty-six acres in Section 3 and is now living a retired life. He has always been interested in political affairs and has ever cast his vote for the Republican party, the principles of which he espouses at all times. He is very public spirited and has proved a useful citizen of the county. In early days he was something of a hunter and shot numerous deer, turkeys and thousands of squirrels. He was considered a fine shot and on one of his hunting expeditions in Ohio he shot twenty one squirrels in less than two hours. He still enjoys this sport and in addition is a worthy disciple of Isaac Walton. He is a member of the German Baptist church, in which he has kept the faith for about thirty-five years... He lost his first wife July 12, 1883, at the old home, she having been a life long member of the German Baptist church, and was deeply interested in all Christian work. She became the mother of seven children, one of whom died in infancy. Their names are as follows: Elizabeth, who was born October 5, 1853, is now the wife of Mason Barringer and resides on a farm in Wayne county, Ill; Daniel W., who is a farmer of Harrison township, was born on August 5, 1856; Mary A. was born May 10, 1855, and died in September of that year; Melinda was born June 7, 1858, and is living in Arkansas City, Kan., the wife of David L. Means; Albert was born May 7, 1861, and is engaged in the manufacture of buggies and wagons in Goshen, is a man of family and is married to Nora Murray; Hiram who was born April 5, 1863, is married to Miss Sadie Compton and lives in Goshen; and Allen, who was born March 30, 1865, is living at Grand Rapids Mich., and is unmarried. Mr. Berkey married his present wife, Mrs. Nancy Shively, the widow of Henry Shively, on Nov 28, 1883..... Mr. Berkey is a Republican in politics. Daniel W. Berkey was born on the farm belonging to his father, Andrew Berkey, in the northern part of Harrison township, being one of his seven children. He first saw the light of day, August 5, 1856, and attended the district schools in the vicinity of his home, where he obtained a practical knowledge of the common branches. At the age of twenty-one years he left the shelter of the paternal roof and began cutting down timber in the neighborhood. Being naturally energetic, wide-awake and thrifty, he made a success at all his undertakings. On November 3, 1878, he decided to enter the married state, and on November 3, 1878, his union with Miss Christina Sherman took place..... After their marriage Daniel W. Berkey settled on a farm, and since that time has devoted his attention to tilling the soil. He first became the owner of land in 1880, but later sold it and in 1885 bought the farm on which he is now residing. He has 103 acres of land all in one tract, which at the time of his purchase, was partly improved. As a farmer he has been decidedly successful, and has become one of the most prominent men in Harrison township..... He and his wife are the parents of six children: Sadie V., born Sep 7, 1879; John C., born March 7 1881; Bertha M., born November 15, 1883; Lizzie, born Nov. 18, 1885, died when about two months old; Elva M., born April 1887, and Ora A., born August 18, 1890.

Lewis Berkey

The social, political and business history of this section is filled with the deeds and doings of selfmade men, and no man in Elkhart county, Ind., is more deserving of the appellation than Mr. Berkey, for he marked out his own career in youth, and has steadily followed it up to the present, his prosperity being attributed to his earnest and persistent endeavor as well as to the fact that he always consistently tried to do as he would be done by. He is the owner of a well improved farm of ninety acres, and the admirable manner in which every nook and cranny of it is kept and the fine state of cultivation in which it now is, has been brought about by the individual efforts of Mr. Berkey..... He was born in Somerset county, Penn., May 25, 1839, a son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Poorman) Berkey, the natal state of the former being Pennsylvania and that of the latter, Ohio. The Berkeys originally came from Germany, and where settlers of the Keystone state where, from the very first, they were connected with the agricultural interests. This occupation received the attention of Daniel Berkey throughout life and he was following it at the time of his death which occurred in Pennsylvania. His widow survives him, is eighty-seven years of age, and is a resident of Elkhart county, Ind. When the strained relations between the North and South resulted in the Civil War in 1861, the services of all able bodied men was very much desired, and Mr. Berkey stood nine drafts during that period. Since 1864 he has been a resident of Elkhart county, Ind., and for over twenty years he has been a resident of his present place... He was for three years engaged in the implement business in Goshen. He was married in 1861 to Miss Mary Berkey, by whom he has two children, Allie and Lizzie. Mr. Berkey is careful, prudent and economical, and no man in the county stands higher for honor and integrity. He was one of thirteen children born to his parents, nine of whom are living: Elijah, of Pennsylvania; Josiah, of Elkhart county Ind.; Eliza; Barbara; Hannah; Christina (7); Catherine, Lewis and Polly. Lewis taught several terms of school in his youthful days while a resident of Pennsylvania.

WAGON USED DURING CIVIL WAR PRIZED HIGHLY BY OWNER

Hauled Army Recruits to Johnstown from Stoyestown Is

LEMUEL MILLER OWNER

Special to The Tribune.

KANTNER, April 9.—Sometime during the year 1863 Jacob Maurer, a prominent farmer of Quemahoning Township, Somerset County, bought a new spring wagon from Michael Brubaker, who was then engaged in the manufacture of wagons in Stoyestown.

The Maurer family was patriotic and the new spring wagon was soon filled with the same spirit and put to work carrying enlisted men from Stoyestown to Johnstown. William Maurer, the youngest son of the owner of the wagon, acted as driver up to the time of the recruiting of Company G, 93d P. V. I., when he enlisted and rode in the same wagon to the Nation's service. The late William Berkey, brother-in-law of William Maurer and father of Prof. Jacob M. Berkey and Albert and Jeremiah Berkey, of Johnstown, rode to Johnstown on the same wagon on his way to the army.

William Maurer served as Captain of Company G, 93d Regiment, P. V. I., and after the close of the Civil War continued to farm on the old homestead, his father having died in the intervening time. After Capt. Maurer's death a few years ago the wagon was sold at a public sale and Lemuel Miller, of Quemahoning Township, bought it. It is prized highly by Mr. Miller and is given the best of care, and after 54 years of service is in good condition.

Will Wed Harry Shoemaker of Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Berkey, W803 Eighteenth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss June Elizabeth, to Harry Anderson Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hopkins Shoemaker of Boise, Idaho.

During Miss Berkey's senior year at Whitman she was vice president of her class, and both she and Mr. Shoemaker took prominent parts in the May day queen's court. Both were also much interested in college dramatics, and Miss Berkey was president of the Whitman college Dramatic club for a year. Mr. Shoemaker's fraternity is Tau Kappa Epsilon. He will graduate from Whitman next year, after spending two years as a radio technician in the navy.

Lewis and Clark Graduate.

Miss Berkey graduated from Lewis and Clark high school and was president of Dasidrian social and talent club during her senior year. Her father, one of Spokane's well-known attorneys, has practiced here for the last 40 years. She is the niece of Dr. C. C. Berkey and of Attorney Harrison M. Berkey, both of Spokane.

The engagement was first told by Miss Berkey to a group of her friends, invited to her home for an evening of bridge, July 7. She had spent the Fourth of July week end in Boise.

Soft phonograph music had been the background during the early part of the evening. But at 10 o'clock, when the scores were being made, the music on the record, played by Mr. Shoemaker became louder. The "announcer on station KWED" interrupted to explain that the transcribed program originated at Boise, Idaho, on the Fourth of July, "when June and Harry had renounced their independence of one another." The record continued with Miss Berkey's presentation of Mr. Shoemaker to the friends gathered in the home, and closed with a medley of haunting airs, hinting at a still more interesting event in the future.

College Songs Sung.

The delighted group surrounded Miss Berkey and sang the traditional college engagement songs to her, and then requested that the phonograph record be repeated.

When the curtains to the dining room were withdrawn, they disclosed an interesting setting for the buffet supper. Whitman college colors of blue and maize were used in the decorations, the flowers that centered the table, and the many candles that lighted the rooms and food. Both Miss Berkey and Mr. Shoemaker are Whitman-

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss June Elizabeth Berkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Berkey, W803 Eighteenth, to Harry Anderson Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Shoemaker of Boise, Idaho. The romance began at Whitman college where they met on the campus. (Portrait by Miller, Walla Walla.)

The Origin of the Berkeys in America.

tradition
1. Three brothers and two sisters who came from Germany. One stayed in the East; another came to Somerset co; another went on to the West, first settling in Ohio. Barbara was the name of one of the sisters.

Old Dr. Berkey in Berlin Somerset co, said to be a descendant of the one who settled in Somerset co. Dr. Robert Patterson, of Stoyestown, studied medicine under Dr. Berkey. Sons: Fletcher Patterson, Berkey Patterson. Fletcher lives in Pgh.

2. History of Bedford, Somerset, and Fulton Counties. vol 2, p. 64 :

Of these early settlers we have these names, Jacob Saylor (father and son), Christian Knaigey, Christian Berkey (or Perkey), Peter Fahrney (Forney), Michael Buechly, John Olidger, John Burger, John Miller. Also the Burntragers and possibly some of the Haupts. Of these the Saylor, Buechleys, Knaigeys, and the Berkeys may be looked upon as being among those first to come, and except the Berkeys, all of these are still well known names in the county. The Berkey family in the northern part of the county is not known to be of this stock, which is not known to have any representatives here"
